Week after week we're committed to searching, listening, and bringing you the best of what our city has to offer...in terms of music, that is. This week, in our playlist, we've brought in a few new names, sprinkled in some well-known favorites, and explored other tracks from local bands we've seen before.

There's only one thing for you to do: turn the music up!

Olivia Millerschin - "Screw Valentine's Day"

Olivia Millerschin is only 18 years old but already has an impressive track record behind her. A singer-songwriter with a voice of smoky magic, Olivia has toured with Teddy Geiger, Tyler Hilton, and Ryan Cabrera. Her music has been played on numerous radio stations all over Michigan, parts of Chicago, and even in California. She's working on a new album now! Talk about a go-getter. Check her out here!

We Came As Romans – “Everything As Planned”

(credit: wikipedia.org)

This track is off of the hardcore rockers' second album, “What We've Grown To Be” which is a much darker album than their debut. It showcases how the band members have grown and changed with time; it's melodic, gritty, and layered with soaring vocals. Check them out here!

Madonna – “I'm Addicted”

(credit: wikipedia.org)

Did you know pop-queen Madonna went to the University of Michigan on a dance scholarship? And she was once in a band called the Breakfast Club? She's touched the hearts of millions of fans over her 30+ year career in music and entertainment and she's not backing down yet. Represent, Madonna! Check her out here!
